
STATEMENT OF FACT

By accepting this insurance you confirm that the following facts stated are true. These statements, and all information you or anyone on your behalf provide before we agreed to insure you, are incorporated into and form the basis of the policy. If anything in these statements is not correct, or if any material information is not disclosed we will be entitled to treat this insurance as if it had never existed.

- You are registered and domiciled in the United Kingdom, all of your assets are based in the United Kingdom and you do not generate any income from activities outside of the European Union
- You do not expect any significant changes to your activities in the next 12 months
- All venues used by you are risk assessed and maintained in a good state of repair
- You ensure that wherever possible for sporting events, including training and competitions, there is a trained first aider on site
- You have a written policy statement and documented instructions on the protection of children and vulnerable adults
- Any volunteers and employees working for you who come into unsupervised contact with children and vulnerable adults provide to you at least one written reference from a previous employer, education establishment, Jobcentre or armed forces which is independently verified by you
- You ensure that Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks are carried out and updated every three years or less for all volunteers and employees working for you who come into unsupervised contact with children and vulnerable adults
- Where you sub-contract work or engage others to provide a service, you ensures that the sub-contractor has liability insurance in place with at least the same limit of indemnity held by you
- For any premises which you own which is hired out for non-club or association functions or events, the total number of these events does exceed 25 in any one period of insurance and the maximum number of attendees at any one event does not exceed 500
- If you hold any events which involve bonfires, fireworks or inflatable play equipment, the maximum number of attendees at any one event does not exceed 250
- You have not been convicted of or charged with any offence, other than a motoring offence or conviction spent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
- You have not been declared bankrupt or become insolvent or made any voluntary arrangement with creditors or been subject to enforcement of a judgement debt either in a personal capacity or as a business
- You have not had any insurance proposal declined, renewal refunded, or cover terminated for any reason
- There have been no claims, investigations or allegations made by third parties against you in the last five years which may have given rise to a claim under this policy had it been in force
- You are not aware of any fact, circumstance, allegation, incident, breach of legislation or escalating level of complaint which may give rise to a claim under this policy

-
- You do not provide, operate, coach, instruct, facilitate, organise, referee, umpire or provide stewardship for any of the following:
 - winter sports other than ice-skating
 - activities involving any animals, including but not limited to horse riding, polo or any other equestrian activities
 - activities underground, including but not limited to potholing
 - activities taking place more than five metres above floor level when inside a building or more than five metres above ground when outside a building
 - activities involving mechanically driven rides or activities at speeds exceeding 10 m.p.h.
 - activities involving the use of weapons
 - gymnastics, other than floor based activities
 - any combat sport including but not limited to boxing, wrestling or martial arts
 - Gaelic football, Australian rules football or any form of rugby other than tag rugby
 - hunting
 - aerial activities including but not limited to hand-gliding, parachuting, parascending, paragliding, kite surfing or bungee jumping
 - any kind of race, assault or obstacle course, endurance test, strength test, or activity which is known to carry an increased risk of personal injury
 - training or coaching services to any professional athletes. For the purposes of this underwriting guide, professional is defined as any person whose main source of income is generated by participating in sports or from sponsorship associated with sports. This does not include coaches or instructors
 - Your estimated annual turnover does not exceed £100,000
 - Where personal accident cover is selected, no person to be insured under this insurance will undertake any activities other than the following:
 - Clerical, administrative and managerial
 - Instruction, tuition and coaching
 - Driving
 - Catering
 - Groundkeeping, i.e. maintenance of playing areas and general property maintenance